Several Attend the Older Adult Ministries Seminar

By Nathaniel Hankins

Six members of our Mature Adults Council attended this seminar by the Rev. Dr. Richard H. Gentzler, Jr. Attending were: Jack and Ann Moore, Bobby and Billie Jean Evans, Sherrie Walker, and Nathaniel Hankins. Dr. Gentzler said that through movies, television and print media, our society has fostered many myths and negative stereotypes for Older Adults. Society says that to be old is to be used up; no longer having value, and this is more so with women than men. Further, society says that we must have beauty and strength. The fact is, as we age facial and body changes are natural parts of aging (i.e. crows feet, bulging stomachs, etc). Older adults need a variety of activities to be engaged! Our Mature Adults Council will attempt to (continued on page 4A
